SECTION 01

Why Tel Aviv

The heart of Israeli life, and a good moment to buy

THE CITY

The City So Many Olim Dream Of

Sought after worldwide

One of the most desired cities for Jewish buyers in Israel and abroad.

Community and culture

Beach, cafés, culture and large English- and French-speaking communities.

Work and opportunity

Israel's business and tech hub.

A buyer's window

Second-hand prices in the Tel Aviv District fell 2.0% in Q2 2026, with early signs of recovery since.

Source: Israel Central Bureau of Statistics, Aug–Sep 2026. Prices can move in either direction.

SECTION 02

Your Oleh Tax Benefit

The single biggest saving in your purchase

PURCHASE TAX

New Immigrants Pay Far Less Purchase Tax

0%

up to NIS 1,978,745

0.5%

NIS 1,978,745 to NIS 6,055,070

8%

NIS 6,055,070 to NIS 20,183,565

Above NIS 20,183,565 the benefit no longer applies. Compare this with an international investor, who pays 8% from the first shekel.

For an eligible home purchase from 15 August 2024. Brackets frozen until January 2028. Source: Israel Tax Authority; amended Purchase Tax Regulations.

What the Benefit Means in Shekels

International investor

NIS 400,000

8% from the first shekel

Israeli resident, single home

NIS 145,538

Regular single-home brackets

Eligible new immigrant

NIS 15,106

Approx.: 0% first band, then 0.5%

Illustrative saving vs an investor: about NIS 384,894

Assumes an eligible qualifying home purchase and 2026 brackets. Your lawyer calculates the exact amount before filing.

Timing and Conditions to Know

Timing window

Generally from one year before aliyah until seven years after it.

Your home

The benefit is for a home you buy as your residence, not an investment property.

Once only

The benefit can generally be used once for a residential purchase.

Proof of status

Filed with your Ministry of Interior aliyah record and the tax return.

Compare routes

Your lawyer checks whether the oleh route or the regular single-home route gives the better result.

Buying before aliyah

Possible, but the filing needs planning. Speak to us and your lawyer before you sign.

Rules change and depend on personal circumstances. Confirm eligibility with your lawyer before signing.

SECTION 03

Finding Your Home

The right neighbourhood for the life you want

Choose by Lifestyle, Then by Budget

| Area          | Best for                                | Typical home                            | Keep in mind               |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Old North     | Families, parks, schools, quiet streets | Renovated 3–4 room apartment            | Higher entry price         |
| City Center   | Walkability, cafés, young energy        | Bauhaus or newer infill building        | Building quality varies    |
| Neve Tzedek   | Boutique charm, near the beach          | Boutique apartment or house             | Rare supply, premium price |
| Jaffa         | Character, sea views, value             | Historic or new development             | Varies street by street    |
| Nearby cities | More space for the budget               | Ramat Gan, Givatayim, Herzliya, Netanya | Commute to Tel Aviv        |

Share your budget and daily routine (school, work, synagogue, beach) and we will suggest the best-fit areas.

CHECKLIST

What to Look for in an Israeli Apartment

Safe room (mamad)

A protected room in the apartment, or a nearby shelter.

Elevator and access

Especially important in older buildings.

Registered parking

Check it is legally yours, not just used.

Balcony and light

Orientation, noise and view shape daily life.

Building condition

Committee, maintenance fees and planned works.

Urban renewal

TAMA 38 or pinui-binui plans can add value, or disruption.

Resale Apartment or New Construction?

|                     | Resale apartment                        | New construction                             |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| What you see | The real apartment and building history | Plans, specifications and a future delivery  |
| Timing       | Often faster to move in                 | Construction and registration can take years |
| Price        | Direct negotiation with the seller      | Promotions can change the real price         |
| Protection   | Contract ties each payment to documents | Bank guarantee under the Sale Law            |
| Main checks  | Title, permits and condition            | Developer, guarantee, indexation, delays     |

If you need to move in soon after aliyah, resale is usually the practical choice.

SECTION 04

Your Full-Service Journey

One contact, a trusted team, and support after the keys

Every Professional You Need, Coordinated

Real estate lawyer

Represents you independently

Mortgage adviser

Compares banks and routes

Appraiser

Confirms value for you and the bank

Architect

Layout changes and permits

Interior designer

Style, finishes and planning

Furnishing

Furniture, accessories and styling

Contractors

Renovation and repairs

Moving & set-up

Utilities, arnona and move-in

Professionals are independent and quote their own fees. We recommend people we trust and keep them aligned.

Your Journey in Six Steps

A typical resale purchase takes about 6 to 12 weeks from offer to keys. Design and renovation run on their own timeline.

Mortgage and Funds for Olim

Israeli mortgage

- Banks assess income, assets and credit case by case
- Foreign income is possible but needs full documentation
- An appraisal confirms the property value
- Get pre-approval before making an offer

Bringing your funds

- Open an Israeli bank account early
- Prepare source-of-funds documents
- Plan transfers to match contract dates
- Keep a currency buffer for closing costs

We connect you with an independent mortgage adviser who works with olim.

Your Budget Beyond the Purchase Price

| Cost item                     | Indicative basis              | When                      |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Purchase tax           | Oleh brackets: 0% / 0.5% / 8% | Within 60 days of signing |
| Brokerage              | Typically 2% + VAT            | At contract               |
| Lawyer                 | Agreed fee + VAT              | Contract and closing      |
| Mortgage and appraisal | Bank, adviser and valuer fees | Before financing          |
| Design and renovation  | Quoted per project            | After handover            |
| Furniture and moving   | Quoted per home               | Move-in                   |

We provide a property-specific cost estimate before you sign.

Documents to Prepare Early

Identity & status

- Passport and Teudat Zehut
- Aliyah record (Ministry of Interior)
- Marriage certificate if buying together
- Power of attorney if abroad

Funds & banking

- Bank statements and transfer trail
- Source-of-funds documents
- Mortgage pre-approval if relevant
- Bank compliance forms

Transaction & tax

- Signed purchase contract
- Oleh purchase-tax benefit request
- Purchase-tax return and payment
- Registration at closing

Documents signed abroad may need an apostille. Your lawyer confirms the final list.
